To Whom it May Concern;

It is so funny to think that I have to waste my time in writting letters to protest against ban on smoking. I would think that there are a lot more things (more important) to worry about, Children's safe car seats, toys, and clothing. Preparing our meat in a sanitary way. They complain that there isn't enough money to do a real good job. But, where is this money coming from to fight smokers. I hope my tax dollars are not being spent on it.

Where I work we have settled the disagreement between smokers and non-smokers. Why can't they just let us settle our own problems. The prohibition against alcohol didn't work, why will it work against smoking.

Sincerely,

Roberta L. Klug
