

As a major airline Check Airman, I am responsible for evaluating pilots on a regular basis. I must say that the pilots skills and motor functions slow as a function of increased age. I am a firm believer of the "age 60" retirement from a safety standpoint.