

I am a resident of the state of Indiana and wish to express my preference for the Central time zone. There are many logical and common sense reasons why we should be in the central time zone, the most compelling being our geographical location and our proximity to Chicago, which is also on Central time.