

The criminalization of breaches of the Washington ADIZ is overkill. Targeting small general aviation aircraft as dire threats to national security is discrimination. Why are you all not targeting large trucks? Oklahoma City was not a small plane. The GA community is trying very hard to police itself. My own airports (as a private pilot and Captain in the Civil Air Patrol) are very vigilant with security and pilot education. The current penalties are sufficient.