

General Aviation is not a threat to our national security. Small airplanes are incapable of carrying enough payload to interest terrorists.

Please, please, please be sensible about this and stop imposing flight restrictions around our nations capital and other places throughout the United States of America. By denying private pilots of our personal freedom and by spending millions of dollars to enforce unnecessary flight restrictions, our government is succumbing to terrorism.

Do not give the terrorist what they want. Let freedom ring!