

I am AGAINST DCA Class B security restrictions to be made permanent. As an airline pilot, ATP/14,000hrs, and a general aviation user I see no need to enact this proposal. No general aviation aircraft has ever been used in a terrorist attack, many general aviation aircraft would be unable to operate within this airspace, and the economic impact on flight schools etc. will be devastating.