

I live about 5 miles from the college park, md airport and maybe 10 from the gaithersberg airport. As a student pilot, I think the Washington regulations are unreasonable. The fines are outrageous for accidental incursions. These regulations have in effect reduced Washington airspace access to commercial and the privledged. All citizens own the airspace, not just congress.