RE: Docket No. 28154

Dear Mr. Gerchick:

I am writing to oppose a change to the Age 60 Rule for airline pilots.

The American people do not find it prudent to allow 63 year old people to drive fire trucks, fly military aircraft, or drive police patrol cars under the judgments of "safety" or "operational considerations." Why should airline pilots, who control the fates of 200 or 300 lives, be considered any different? Greed? Ego? NO THANKS!

Sincerely,

Joel Palumbo
