

I don't think this bill should be past as it will hurt a large number of people who want & need to ship their dogs. Owners want to travel with their pets for pleasure and people want tp fly with their to show or breed or bring a new puppy home. There are many pets ship with no problems. I have never had a problem & wouldn't want not to be able to ship my pet.