

Please do not raise the amount you charge an airline to fly at peak times. It will just raise what I have to pay. Limit the number that fly at peak times by not approving so many flights at peak times. That will spread the flights a little more evenly.