

After reading the article in Equipment World about Hours Of Service for construction workers I wanted to express my thanks for someone finally bringing to light the special needs of the construction truck driver. We work here in the Northeast where Mother Nature rules and we must work around her. Some days we have long hours but other days we have little or none. I like the "Type 6 Driver" proposal. Thank you.